5. Flying:

- a. Two areas, one at Kreuzbruch between Berlin and Oraniemburg, and the other at Heinersdorf, have been allocated to the GST Bezirk Gross Berlin as additional glider training areas.
- b. Gliders of the GST are to be equipped with blind-flying equipment and position lights for night flying, but none has been fitted so far.

6. Morale:

The top paid officials are tried and proven old Communists. Those immediately subordinate to them do as much as they have to do to them their paid posts, but little more. The bulk of the members are attracted by the cheap subscriptions: 25 pfennigs for students and pensioners, 50 pfennigs for these earning up to 350 marks per month, and 1 mark for those earning 600 marks. This entitles them to all the facilities of the GST, such as gliding, riding, shooting, and so on.

There is some grumbling because the quantity of available equipment has lagged far behind the growth of the membership. There is only a framework of paid officials with a few paid instructors, the remainder of the officials and instructors being honorary. Nevertheless, a basic organization exists. Given the necessary funds and equipment, it could easily be expanded and made reasonably efficient.

B. VdA Personalities:

- 1.Colonel Alter expects to be moved from his present post in the near future, as a result of reorganization in the VdA. It is not clear whether he is to be transferred within his present service or is to be retired.
- 2.Major Kraemer, formerly in the VdA Personnel Department of the VdA is now deputy chief of the Personnel Department of the GST.
